Mr. Butler,

I just received your email from Courtney Edwards with the ORS. My last name has 1 "L," you inadvertently added a 2nd "L" which is why I didn't receive your emails. I apologize for any confusion in those regards. In this region of the country, my name is more often seen with 2 Ls, so it is a mistake with which I am all too familiar.

Regarding the waiver request, we were under a DHEC deadline to get an application filed. Due to the age of the system, some documents were very difficult to find, particularly engineering drawings. Initially, we did not believe we would be able to obtain all of the information required in 103-512.4 in time. Since the necessary information was obtained, we should have removed the waiver request from the application. I apologize. Please withdraw our waiver request.

Sincerely,

Daniel Trammel
Attorney for the Applicant
